An Indiana Man Secures the Chinese Mission.

SEVERAL APPOINTMENTS MADE

Two of Riel's Lieutenants Captured on American Soil—Walla Walla Cattle in Chicago—Horrible Outrages by Apaches.

WASHINGTON, May — Charles Denby, of Indiana, was to-day appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to China.

Colonel Charles Denby, who goes as minister to China to succeed Mr. John Russell Young, is [illegible] years of age. He was born in [illegible] county, Virginia. He was educated at Georgetown [illegible] college, where he took the [illegible] more than [illegible] have been received [illegible]. His education was completed at the Virginia Military Institute. In 1853 Colonel Denby removed to Evansville, Indiana, where, with the exception of three years during the war, he has since resided and practiced law. During the rebellion he was lieutenant colonel of the Forty-second Indiana regiment and was twice wounded. He has been a member of the Indiana state legislature. Colonel Denby was requested to accept the nomination to congress of the First Indiana congressional district, but declined, and has devoted his time almost exclusively to the legal profession. He was indorsed by the entire Indiana delegation and by prominent men outside of that state.

MANNING [illegible]

WASHINGTON, May — Secretary Manning to-day dismissed four chiefs of divisions in the third auditor's office: [illegible] of Maryland, [illegible] of Pennsylvania, [illegible] Pettingill of New York, and John R. Thompson of New Hampshire. This action was based on recommendation of Third Auditor Williams. It is said there are no charges against the persons removed. The vacancies will be filled in a few days.

Since Secretary Manning assumed charge of the treasury department sixty clerkships, ranging in salary from $900 to $1800, have become vacant. With one exception the offices are all within civil service classification. The secretary has decided not to fill any of the vacancies, on the ground that the interests of the service do not require it. This will result in an annual saving of about $60,000.

THE PANAMA AFFAIR.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Special.—Nearly all the naval officers who were sent to the isthmus are back in Washington. They regret that the campaign was such a short one. One of the officers in speaking of the situation upon the isthmus said: It is not generally known that we had at one time during our stay complete possession of the Panama canal. We held the two termini and had therefore complete control. It would have been an easy settlement of the canal question to have left us in possession. We will have to assume control of that canal some time, and the time will never come when it can be done easier than it could have then. Undoubtedly the city of Panama was saved from destruction through the coolness alone of McCalla, commander of our land forces. Without his prompt action Panama would have shared the fate of Colon.

THE FAVORED FEW.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Mr. Crowell, of Ohio, was appointed United States consul at Amoy, China, to-day. He is at present a member of the Ohio state senate. He is about 45 years of age, and a lawyer by profession. He is a personal and political friend of Mr. Oliver Payne, of Cleveland, and was indorsed for the appointment by Senator Payne.

Mr. Anderson, of Wisconsin, appointed United States consul general to Montreal, was strongly endorsed by prominent democrats of the northwest.

Mr. Pringle, of South Carolina, who goes to Honduras, is a rice planter. He has never held an official position.

Mr. Wamor, also of South Carolina, has been in the consular service for some years. His appointment to Cologne is a promotion.

A FAITH CURE FAILURE.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Rev. R. L. Stanton, who is reported by cable from London to have died on board the steamship Nevada, on her last voyage from New York, was a Presbyterian clergyman of this city, who was formerly president of of Miami university at Oxford, Ohio, and is a brother-in-law to Elizabeth Cady Stanton. He had not been attached to any church in this city, but had on various occasions occupied pulpits of Presbyterian churches during the absence of the regular pastors. Dr. Stanton had been sick with malarial fever since last fall, but being a believer in the faith cure doctrine refused to take medicine, or have medical attendance. He was elected delegate to a convention of believers in cure by faith which is about to be held in London, and was on his way to attend the convention when he died.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENT.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The president to-day appointed James W. Whelpley, of New York, to be assistant treasurer of the United States. Whelpley at present holds the office of cashier. His promotion will cause other promotions as follows: H. A. Whitney, assistant cashier, to be cashier; Edward R. True, teller, to be assistant cashier; and J. F. Miller, chief clerk, to be teller. Valentine P. Snyder, of New York, who is at present acting as private secretary to Secretary Manning, will be appointed chief clerk of the treasurer's office. The above changes all take effect the 1st proximo.

JOHN ROACH IN LUCK.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Captain Belknap, president of the board appointed to examine the Dolphin, in a telegram to the secretary of the navy to-day reports that the trial trip yesterday was satisfactory, and that the requirements of the contract for the vessel were complied with.

IN HONOR OF MEMORIAL DAY.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—All the government and district offices and banks will be closed to-morrow. There will be memorial services at the cemeteries.

DEBT REDUCTION.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—It is estimated that the debt statement for May, to be issued Monday, will show a reduction of about $5,000,000.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

SILVER CIRCULATION IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 29.—[Special.]—The Journal of Commerce says: Inquiry was made of Sub-treasurer Achon and Cashier Floyd, to ascertain the conditions of silver coinage and circulation, especially subsidiary silver. It is pretty generally known that the vaults of the sub-treasury are full to overflowing with silver, including some ten million of minor silver coins. There is some business demand, both for dollars and subsidiary silver, dry goods and other stores and saloons calling for considerable amounts for change. Silver thus goes into circulation, and no doubt it would stay if it were not that city railroads and ferries act as collectors of small change, gathering it up in large quantities and finding no other way to dispose of it but to turn it into the subtreasury.

They bring it in barrels where other people take out kegs," was the remark of Cashier Floyd. Banks will not receive subsidiary silver on deposit, and railroads, ferries, etc., have no other means of getting rid of it.

Cashier Floyd says it takes only about a week to complete the circuit from the subtreasury through the various business channels and the customhouse back to the subtreasury again. Silver now is rather in excess of gold in customhouse receipts.

A leading bank official said yesterday that the banks were well disposed to assist in getting silver into circulation, but if they should undertake to receive subsidiary silver on deposit it would be piled up in their vaults instead of the treasury. Silver dollars, though worth less than eighty-three cents, are at least a legal tender for their nominal sum, but minor coins have only a trifling legal tender quality, are intrinsically worth a good deal less than the silver dollar, and it would be of doubtful legality for banks to accumulate them.

TWO OF RIEL'S MEN CAUGHT.

ST. PAUL, May — General Terry received a telegram last night from the commander at Fort Assiniboine confirming the report of the capture of Gabriel Dumont and Michael Dumois on American soil and their arrival there. They were captured May — by Sergeant Perkins and two scouts on the Milk river trail, ten miles from the fort. General Terry ordered the men to hold the prisoners until further instructions.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—General R. C. Drum sent the following telegram to General Schofield to-day: Replying to your telegram of this date reporting the arrest on American territory of Gabriel Dumont and Michael Dumais, Canadian insurgents who belonged to Riel's insurrectionary forces, the secretary of war instructs me to say that military forces have no authority to arrest or detain them. They must therefore be released from military arrest.

FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY.

NEW YORK, May — The steamer Alvan [illegible], which arrived here to-day from Rio de Janeiro, brings advices to the effect that the new ministry of Brazil has adopted a programme for the abolition of slavery, of which the following is a synopsis: General registry of all slaves, with a declaration of the value of each slave registered, subject to yearly depreciation of [illegible] per cent, making the maximum value of slaves of 60 years at [illegible]. Slaves over 60 years of age will have no monetary value, but will be obliged to serve for a term of three years. The existing emancipation fund will be continued, and in addition a new fund will be created from a tax of [illegible] per cent on all public revenues except exports, and indemnity also will be made to slave owners in 5 per cent policies, to one half the value of each slave, and service of five years in payment of the remainder.

THE APACHE TROUBLES.

EL PASO, Texas, May 29.—Travelers who arrived last night from Lake valley and Chilaride, New Mexico, report there are marauding Indians near both those places and that inhabitants are greatly excited, and are under arms. Miners and cattle men in the Organ and San Andres mountains are coming in for shelter.

SILVER CITY, N. M., May 29.—The Indians are rapidly leaving this section. All are moving south, no new killings are reported. Seven companies of troops are in the field, but [illegible] but little hope to [illegible] them.

LUCAS, N. M., May — Silver City special: The ranches of Colonel Phillips and family murdered by Apaches have been brought in. [illegible] terribly mutilated. The daughter had been hanged by a rope and a hook stuck in the back of her head. Mr. Phillips' eyes were gouged out, his ears cut off, [illegible] and she was otherwise horribly mangled. The outrages are frightful. [illegible] possible could be perpetrated without check.

WALLA WALLA CATTLE IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, May — Eleven car loads of Oregon cattle, numbering 400 head, arrived here direct from Walla Walla, W. T., to-day. Two hundred and eighty averaging 1150 pounds were sold to-day for $[illegible] per 100 pounds. The entire distance traveled was 1914 miles, and the run from Huntington, Oregon, to Council Bluffs, a distance of 1114 miles, was made in [illegible] hours and 10 minutes, an average of [illegible] miles an hour for the distance [illegible], and is considered one of the best runs on record. The cattle [illegible].

CENTRAL [illegible] NOTES.

NEW YORK, May — Dr. [illegible] remained in General Grant's house all night, and which he found that the general had not been awakened with the [illegible] so much any night in the month as he was last night. His patient slept only two or three hours all night and not more than one hour continuously. The general was kept awake by pains in his throat and ear. The doctor said, however, that the throat inside and out appears as well as during the past week, and he believed the general had [illegible] during his ride yesterday afternoon.

THINKS THURMAN WILL RUN.

NEW YORK, May — [Special.]—State Senator [illegible], of Ohio, is at the Fifth Avenue hotel. He said it was probable that the democrats of Ohio will nominate Judge Thurman for governor. [illegible] regards Thurman as the strongest candidate the democrats could nominate, and says he feels certain that the Old Roman will accept.

MRS. SULLIVAN REFUSED A DIVORCE.

BOSTON, May 29.—Judge Allen to-day in the divorce suit brought by John L. Sullivan's wife decided not to grant the latter's application for a divorce. He did not think Sullivan had been proved a gross and confirmed drunkard, nor had his cruelty been proved.

TOWN OFFICIALS INDICTED.

WILKESBARRE, May — The grand jury this afternoon returned an indictment against the town council of Plymouth for maintaining a nuisance and for criminal neglect of their official duty in not keeping the town in good sanitary condition.

MRS. PARNELL'S PROPERTY.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., May 29.—The entire personal property of Mrs. Delia T. S. Parnell, mother of the Irish land leaguer, has been seized at the suit of Joshua T. Turner and others, and is advertised for sale June 1st.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The weekly statement of banks shows the following changes: Reserve increase $9[illegible],850. Banks now hold $60,600,000 in excess of legal requirements.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

ANOTHER D. & R. G. OUTRAGE.

DENVER, May 29.—Gunnison special: This evening, as the east bound Denver and Rio Grande freight train reached a point a few hundred yards from the depot, those in the vicinity saw a flash and heard a loud report from the direction of the train. Upon examination it was found that an explosive of some kind had been placed under the track and had knocked off a piece of rail several inches long and shattered one of the drive wheels of the locomotive. The torpedo was evidently intended for the incoming passenger train from Denver, which happened to be an hour late. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

A YOUTHFUL HOMICIDE.

CHICAGO, May 27.—To-night Hugh Dougherty, aged 14, in company with several other youngsters, met an unknown boy on the street. The Dougherty crowd amused themselves in knocking off the unknown's hat and ill treating him in other ways. The boy finally became enraged and drawing a pocket knife stabbed Dougherty dead. No arrest has yet been made.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A DISSATISFIED ROAD.

CHICAGO, May — The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road has given notice that at the expiration of thirty days it will withdraw from the Colorado & Utah association. In the recent award of percentages made, the St. Paul was reduced from [illegible] to [illegible] per cent. A division of business which it claims is unjust, and to which at one time it made a protest. The Burlington was also very much dissatisfied, and it was expected that it would take the same action. If the St. Paul persists in its determination at the expiration of thirty days it will work in Colorado to Utah traffic as an independent road.

FAILURES.

A PHILADELPHIA BANK SUSPENDS.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 29.—Notice was posted on the door of the Shackamaxon bank this morning, signed by T. H. Huggard, cashier, announcing the suspension of that institution. The president is John Rosebanks; capital $125,000 and surplus $30,000. It is said that accounts have been overdrawn $20,000.

THE WEEK'S FAILURES.

NEW YORK, May — Business failures the last seven days were 20[illegible], against 239 last week and 229 the week previous. Assignments light in all parts of the country.

STATE DISPATCHES

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN PILOT.

ASTORIA, May 29.—[Special.]—Captain Ira Stevens, the well known river pilot, died this morning. He had been sick several days with rheumatic fever. It was thought all danger was over yesterday, but inflammation reached the heart, causing death very quickly and unexpectedly. The remains will be buried Sunday by the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias.

THE FIRE RECORD

A FORT COLLINS, COLORADO [illegible].

DENVER, May — At Fort Collins this morning [illegible] Welch's dry goods store and the Windsor hotel building burned. Estimated loss $40,000; insurance $[illegible],000.

PRESS PITH

The Pittsburg Commercial Gazette says the success of Francis Murphy is such as to cause a fear of a corner on blue ribbon.

Josh Billings thinks that "the man who gets bit twice by the same dog is better adapted to that kind of business than any other."

"What is an epistle?" asked a Sunday school teacher of her class. "The wife of an apostle," replied the young hopeful.—Christian at Work.

New York Tribune: Before the brewers finally adjourn they should pass a resolution thanking St. John for his good work in their interest last fall.

In Boston they enforce a law under which a man is fined $10 for preaching the gospel on the common, and $1 for being found dead drunk on the sidewalk.

Inter Ocean: Mr. Pendleton having got firmly seated and at his official duties, citizens of "the rowdy west" will expect him to do his full duty by the American flag without wasting time.

For the Warrior of the West
Let us sound the slogan!
Black Jack has got his seat again,
Thanks to Mrs. Logan.

Chicago Inter Ocean: Everything in offensive partisan postmasters discovered there is found a score or more of incorrect democratic rams with their horns tangled in the bushes near by waiting to be sacrificed.

Norristown Herald: A New York brewer has offered to purchase the tunnel of the Oregon and California road on the Siskiyou. He proposes to erect a brewery and use the tunnel as a cellar. Temperance men who are fighting the evil will find this new scheme a greater "bore" than any thing they have yet attacked.

POLITICAL EXPRESSION.

Chicago Inter Ocean: That branch of Illinois democrats located in Chicago will now have a capital time to think.

Chicago Inter Ocean: What a time the administration would have had with offensive partisans along the front from 1861 to 1865.

By actual count forty-seven of a party en route to Washington to see about getting offices when approached by the conductor of the train produced passes.

New York Post: The question which party will control the Senate during the last two years of President Cleveland's administration is not likely to be finally settled until after the elections of November 1886.

New York Tribune: The good people of Chicago do not seem to want the blessings of self-government. They are satisfied, if one may judge by their toleration with government by thieves and gamblers, by ballot stealing and fraudulent returns. Otherwise how is it that they tolerate the state of things which seems to exist in that city.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

The Afghan Dispute Amicably Adjusted at Last.

THE ZANZIBAR TROUBLE GROWING

Last Hours of Victor Hugo—The Franco-Chinese Treaty not yet Signed—Evacuation of the Soudan—Etc.

LONDON, May 30.—The News announces this morning, on the highest authority, that Russia's reply to England's counter proposals was received in London yesterday. The reply, the News says, involves the acceptance of the proposals and practically effects a satisfactory settlement of the whole [illegible] of the Afghan boundary. Both Meruchak and Zulfikar remain in possession of the ameer. The main features of the work of demarcation have been finally fixed, and the boundary commission will settle details. The negotiations, according to the News, have been conducted in the most friendly spirit on both sides.

PRAISE FOR GLADSTONE.

LONDON, May 30.—The Daily News editorially says: Gladstone has crowned his illustrious career by again rendering the country a signal service. We must not forget how that peace is secured, however near we came to war such as this generation has not seen. Neither mere obstinacy or skill in diplomacy could have averted it. The task required a combination of the highest qualities which go to make up the complex gift of statesmanship.

LORD ROSEBERY RETURNS.

LONDON, May 29.—Lord Rosebery has arrived in London from his trip to Berlin and The Hague, and had a conference lasting fully an hour to-day with Granville, secretary of state for foreign affairs. The deliberations related to Prince Bismarck's views respecting England's foreign colonial and Egyptian policy.

SIR PETER LUMSDEN.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 29.—Sir Peter Lumsden, recently in charge of the British section of the Afghan boundary commission, will arrive here to-morrow on his way to London.

THE INDIAN VOLUNTEERS.

LONDON, May 29.—The volunteers of India have been placed under orders of the commander-in-chief of the queen's forces, the duke of Cambridge. All Indian volunteers have an extra allowance and wear scarlet uniforms.

RUSSIAN OFFICER AT MESHED.

LONDON, May 29.—A Russian officer and several Cossacks have arrived at Meshed, Persia. Meshed is the capital of the province of Khorassan.

A NEW IRON-CLAD FOR RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.—Another iron-clad has been ordered to be built. The armor plates will be obtained from Sheffield. This new accession to the Russian navy will be constructed at Nikolaieff.

ENGLAND

TROUBLE BREWING FOR GERMANY AND ENGLAND.

NEW YORK, May 29.—[Special.]—The Sun's London special says: There is a growing belief that trouble is brewing for Germany and England respecting Zanzibar. Complications have been caused by the excessive zeal of agents of the German East African company, who are said to have encroached upon Zanzibar trading posts. The sultan of Zanzibar addressed a protest to Germany, England and other European powers. The encroachments were continued, however, and the sultan made reprisals by sending 800 troops to seize the company's chief trading posts. The capture was peacefully effected, but the company sent an urgent demand upon the German government for force to compel restoration of their property, which they claim to own under valid treaties with various native chiefs. This has resulted in an order for a German squadron to proceed to Zanzibar to investigate the subject. The sultan is uneasy over this naval demonstration and he warned England that he may possibly be compelled at any moment to demand the fulfillment of treaty obligations undertaken by Great Britain when she assumed the protectorate over Zanzibar.

THE QUESTION OF INOCULATION.

LONDON, May 29.—Special.—Sir William Gull, Sir Andrew Clarke and Sir Oscar Clayton, all physicians to the royal family, have pronounced against inoculation as a preventive of cholera. Against their opinions Dr. Ferran's experiments have been put to test with the following results: From May 1st to the 10th, 744 persons were inoculated twice and 401 were inoculated once, seven of whom were subsequently attacked with cholera. Of the latter only two died, while no one who had been twice inoculated died. During the same period ninety-three cases of cholera occurred at Alcira among persons not inoculated and thirty-[illegible] were fatal.

AN ABSCONDER ARRESTED.

LONDON, May 29.—Arthur F. Marsh, the absconding superintendent of the firm of Koch, Son & Co., of New York, was arrested at Queenstown on board the steamship Nevada this morning. He at once surrendered all money in his possession, together with his effects, and begged not to be prosecuted. The amount Marsh absconded with was $6,000.

A WORD OF PRAISE FOR STANLEY.

LONDON, May 29.—The Times, in an editorial, says: Henry M. Stanley, in his campaign in Europe on behalf of the Congo state, has shown scarcely less energy, enthusiasm and tact than are displayed in his book on the Congo. His zeal is boundless and his industry [illegible].

THE WHITSUNTIDE HANDICAP.

LONDON, May 29.—At the Manchester Whitsuntide meeting to-day the race for the Whitsuntide plate, 2000 sovereigns, for two year olds, was won by Mr. [illegible] Philosophy.

A SOCIETY ITEM.

LONDON, May 29.—Baron [illegible], the ambassador, and his wife will spend the holidays with the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh.

LORD HARTINGTON'S ILLNESS.

LONDON, May 29.—Lord Hartington is somewhat better, but still unable to leave his bed.

FRANCE

THE LAST HOURS OF HUGO.

NEW YORK, May 29.—[Special.]—The Courrier des Etats Unis published to-day a letter from Paris giving a full account of the last illness of Victor Hugo. It contains many touching anecdotes and sayings of the great poet when on his death bed. He recalled many incidents of his youth, and while speaking of some of his boyish adventures stopped and began to recite without the least effort of memory several verses of a Spanish poet. This illness was caused by his own carelessness. He always dressed the same, no matter what the weather was, and never wore an overcoat. When his friend Ferdinand de Lesseps was received into the academy, and while very many were in [illegible] of the cold, Victor Hugo held his hat in his hand. He remained uncovered nearly ten minutes. This is supposed to have been the cause of his illness.

THE SALON PRIZES AWARDED.

PARIS, May 29.—The salon prizes have been awarded as follows: Bouguereau received the first prize, B. Constant second and Humbert the third.

CANADA.

CRANKS LOOK TO GOOD TEMPLARS.

TORONTO, May 29.—At its closing session tonight the grand lodge of Good Templars appointed a committee to memorialize the American congress against allowing liquors being imported in unbroken packages and sold in prohibition states and towns. Also commenting in high terms the courage and efficiency of Canadian troops in the northwest and that this was done absolutely without the use of stimulants under General Middleton's orders.

FALL IN GRAIN RATES.

MONTREAL, May 29.—There is a heavy fall in grain freights from here to Great Britain. The price was three shillings per quarter, but it is now only nine pence. The cause alleged is that railways are carrying wheat from Chicago to Boston and New York for merely nominal rates and the Erie canal route being without tolls [illegible] its supremacy over the St. Lawrence.

CHINA.

THE TREATY NOT YET SIGNED.

TIEN-TSIN, May — A telegram from this [illegible] received at Shanghai, stating that all the articles of the treaty of peace between China and France had been agreed to and that the treaty would be signed to-day, was premature. Negotiations still continue, and M. Patenotre, French ambassador, has recently had several interviews with Li Hung Chang, Chinese envoy. Both are now awaiting the reply of the Pekin government to the latest French proposals.

MEXICO.

TROUBLE BETWEEN DIAZ AND GONZALES.

MEXICO (via Galveston), May 29.—The hostility which has long threatened a rupture between President Diaz and ex-President Gonzales has finally culminated in an order adopted in congress for the impeachment of the two secretaries of the treasury under Gonzales' administration and also of minor treasury officials. It is generally thought Gonzales will endeavor to vindicate himself. His friends are reported as saying he will precipitate a revolution before submitting.

THE SOUDAN.

TAMAI EVACUATED.

CAIRO, May 29.—Tamai has been evacuated by British troops. The number of persons who have left Dongola since the departure of the Mudir is 3000. The probable approach of the forces of El Mahdi greatly alarms the people in towns evacuated and about to be evacuated by the British.

GERMANY

TALK OF WAR WITH ENGLAND.

BERLIN, May 29.—Several of the Berlin papers have alarmist articles over the trouble between the sultan of Zanzibar and the German East Africa Company. They hint that Germany may be compelled to declare war against both England and Italy for inciting the sultan against peaceable German subjects.

SALEM NOTES

SALEM, May 29.

W. M. [illegible], well and favorably known here, is lying dangerously ill in this city.

Hon. [illegible] and Co. F. Page Tustin, of Pendleton, have been doing the city recently.

Miss [illegible] Cooke, of this city, will be married to [illegible] Mr. Lee, of Portland, on the 10th of June.

The weather has cleared off warm and pleasant and every one is feeling correspondingly happy.

The erection of an elegant band stand in Wilson's avenue will be commenced this morning.

F. A. Crosby, of Astoria, escorted a Chinaman to the insane asylum of this city, arriving here yesterday.

The death by violence of others of P. Coffey, the well known farmer, has occasioned universal regret among our citizens.

The mountain party will this evening be entertained by Miss Callie Miller at her home in the southern suburb of the city.

The firemen of the Willamette valley have again commenced drilling for the state tournament, the weather permitting practice.

Two more weddings are looked for among asylum employes. A matrimonial epidemic appears to have broken out in their midst.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give an ice cream and strawberry festival at Mrs. A. A. McCully's residence on Piety hill this evening.

Thomas Holman and Clay Starr will represent Tiger Engine Co. No. — of this city at the forthcoming meeting of the State Firemen's Association.

Miss Jennie Necklin, formerly of your city, was married here yesterday to James I. Runey of Grand Rapids, Mich., and at once left for their new home in the east.

The state board of agriculture are having apartments prepared for them under supervision of Secretary Earhart in the capitol building on the basement floor of the east entrance.

R. E. Drake, of this city, started this morning for an extended trip throughout the eastern states among scenes he has not visited for well nigh thirty years. He will be absent for several months.

Ed. J. Frazier, the bookkeeper at the Oregon insane asylum, is circulating a subscription paper to secure means to lay a sidewalk from Mill creek to the insane asylum, a much needed improvement.

Protection lodge No. 2, A. O. U. W., has elected A. T. Wheeler and W. G. Piper as delegates to the grand lodge, which meets in this city in July next. Wm. Armstrong will represent Salem lodge in the same grand body.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Chapman and daughter and Miss Laura Chapman, of Lockport, New York, a brother and sister of Capt. T. C. Smith's wife of this city, arrived here last night and will spend several days in the city.

Governor Moody has recently appointed the following notaries public for Oregon: Laman S. Wood, Weston; J. F. Magers, McMinnville; Harry C. Lloyd, Portland; M. J. Chamberlin, Salem; Frank Davis and Andrew C. McKenzie, of Portland.

Marion square has been thoroughly cleaned out, the trees nicely trimmed and the grounds are now in splendid condition for a printers' picnic the coming Fourth of July. The craft ought by all means to commence their arrangements for something of the kind.

The managers of the O. & C. R. R. have granted one and one-fifth fares on their lines of road to all who may desire to attend the commencement exercises at the Willamette university next week. Those going will pay full fare, but returning they will only be compelled to pay one fifth of the usual fare.

The week commencing June — is so full of important public events as to preclude the attendance of all on each as many desire to do. The state firemen's tournament at Astoria, the Masonic grand lodge and annual convocation of the Episcopal church at Portland, and the commencement exercises at the Willamette university and the Academy of the Sacred Heart in this city are all announced to take place during that week.

The following articles of incorporation have recently been filed in the office of the secretary of state: Society of Friends, Newberg, Oregon; incorporators, Samuel Holsen, Jesse Edwards and I. C. Smock. Eugene Engine Co. No. 1, Eugene City; incorporators, Geo. S. Washburne, Alex. Cocker, [illegible] and V. McLellan. Society of the Most Precious Blood, Linn county, Oregon; incorporators, Victor Eifert, Chris. Silbernagel, Anthony Bender; capital stock $[illegible],000. Big Klamath Ditch Company, Linkville; incorporators, W. Steele, R. R. Frausen and Jas. Wilson. Silver Quartz Mining Co., Jacksonville; incorporators, J. A. Cardwell, Jerry Nunan, I. W. Thomas. [illegible] Grove Cemetery Association, Linn county; incorporators, [illegible] Gray, [illegible] Porter, J. F. McCartney, William R. Garrett and F. A. Watts. Halsey. East Portland Vindicator Publishing company; incorporators, Nat. L. Baker, John Kenworthy and Ira Jones.

American Flag Packing company, Astoria; incorporators, Magnus J. Anderson, Walter L. Koah, Eliza R. Home.

EAST SIDE NOTES

Mrs. William Hahn left for Hood River yesterday for the benefit of her health, which has been declining for some time past.

The thanks of the community are due Morris Barrell for keeping free ice water on tap in front of his place of business on Fourth street between I and J.

At a regular meeting of Fidelity lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W., held Thursday evening, William Halfpenny was elected delegate to the grand lodge, which meets at Salem July 8.

W. F. Wells, brakeman on the O. & C. road, who met with a severe accident at Albany Wednesday, returned home here Thursday. While stepping from the car he fell face downward to the ground, cutting and bruising his face in a shocking manner, knocking out several teeth and cutting his tongue badly.

The two-story residence of James Lembo, located on the southeast corner of Division and Nineteenth street, was burned to the ground Thursday night, the fire originating in the lower story from some unknown cause soon after 1 o'clock, while the family were asleep upstairs. The fire had gained such headway when discovered that the occupants were able to save very little except themselves. There was insurance of $1500 on the building. The Fourth ward fire company promptly responded to the alarm, and by their efforts the crew prevented it from spreading to an adjacent barn and other outhouses.

D. J. Mason, of Albany, right worshipful grand master Mason of Oregon, who is on his annual tour, visited Washington lodge of this city last evening, accompanied by Rev. [illegible], grand orator, and the occasion was made one of general sociability and fraternal greeting. A large number of Masons attended from Portland and there were altogether about 125 present. After exchange of addresses, the company filed into the banquet hall, adjoining, where an elegant spread greeted them, and the feast of substantials was accompanied by the feast of reason and flow of soul.

OLYMPIA ITEMS.

OLYMPIA, May 28.

It is generally expected that some important appointments will soon be made here.

Mr. Ezra Meeker, of Puyallup, who is generally known as the hop king, visited this city with his family a few days since.

The funeral of Dr. B. A. Smith, of this city, took place yesterday and was attended by a large circle of sympathizing friends.

A Good Templars' lodge was organized at Shelton's Point on Tuesday last by the Rev. James Campbell, assisted by a deputation from this place.

A man named Crain, who owned a ranch in the vicinity of Oyster bay, was accidentally drowned a few days since while boat sailing. Up to yesterday his body had not been recovered.

Mrs. Mary E. Scott, of this city, last week received from the Champions of the Red Cross the sum of $1000, being the amount for which her late husband was insured in that order.

To the satisfaction and great convenience of the public, Postmaster Cook not only distributes the mail after its arrival here at 8 o'clock P. M., but even opens the delivery window for a short time afterwards.

Mr. W. N. Horton, of this city, the indefatigable water pipe inventor, has struck a new idea to prevent the destruction of piles by the teredo, which seems to be both feasible and economical and might result in saving a good many thousand dollars in the year on this coast.

A large barn belonging to the Case estate on Grand Mound prairie, Thurston county, was burned last week, including a large lot of farming implements, hay, grain, etc. It was the result of children playing with matches, and the three little fellows who did the mischief came near being burned, but were rescued by persons near by, who heard their cries.

The will of the late Mrs. S. L. Burroughs, of Seattle, has been admitted to probate. She leaves her whole estate to Messrs. M. V. Stacy and A. A. Denny, in fee simple, who, after paying for her funeral expenses and erecting a monument on her grave, and giving as much as they deem fit to her friends, Mrs. Mary Hinds and her daughter Cora, are to contribute the balance to whatever benevolent or charitable purposes they see fit.

THE REDUCTION IN THE FORCE AT THE MINT.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—[Special.]—The announcement made a few days ago that the director of the mint at Washington had ordered a heavy reduction in the force employed in the United States branch mint in this city has given rise to a very general discussion of the subject and on all sides the very pertinent question is asked, "Was it done for political purposes?" Among democrats it is of course denied that the director of the mint, who acted under orders of the secretary of the treasury, was influenced by political motives, but close investigation seems to indicate that the wholesale discharge of employes at the San Francisco mint was the first step in the inauguration of a policy by which the present administration intends to evade the provisions of the civil service laws. In an interview with Superintendent E. F. Burton on the subject the following conversation took place:

"Don't you think the coinage of silver was cut down at the San Francisco mint in order to have a good excuse for discharging employes, and that the same policy will be pursued at other mints?"

"It is possible that such may be the case. The government must coin $2,000,000 every month, but the secretary of the treasury can direct the distribution of coinage among the mints in any way he may see fit."

"To what extent could this power of the secretary of the treasury be carried?"

"He could order this mint to stop the coinage of silver entirely, which would throw out all the force now employed in the silver department. He could, at any future time, order it to resume silver coinage, which would necessitate the employment of a new force. The law only requires the coinage of a fixed amount every month, and it can be transferred from one mint to another at the pleasure of the secretary."

"Do you think then that it is the policy of the secretary of the treasury to stop silver coinage, first at one mint and then at another, until the entire force in this department is superseded by new employes?"

"I won't say that this will be done, but you can see yourself that such a policy can easily be carried out and the indications are that it will be done."

NEWS FROM CHINA AND JAPAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—The steamer City of New York arrived at 10 this morning with Hong Kong dates to May 2 and Yokohama to May 12. Advices state that the Chinese government intend creating a separate vice-royalty of all the western provinces in central Asia. The object of this is to enable the Chinese government to contend more successfully against Russian encroachments. The capital of the vice-royalty will be at [illegible], close to the present Russian frontier.

The Russians have bought up all the coal in Yokohama, and are making active inquiries for steamers for transport purposes.

Yokohama was the scene of an extraordinary occurrence May 6. As the British men-of-war Agamemnon, Sapphire and Swift steamed into port the Russian ship Vladimir Monomach, commanded by Admiral Crown, commander-in-chief of the Russian squadron in these seas, piped to quarters, manned the guns and made every preparation for immediate action. It is stated that had so much as a rifle been fired from the Russian vessel the Agamemnon would have rammed her. No explanation of the affair was made by the Russian commander.

About 30,000 people in Corea are said to be prepared to rise against the government, overthrow it and drive foreigners, including Japanese, from Corea. Notice has been posted in the center of Seoul warning people to leave the capital, as disturbances are expected to occur May 31, when the castle will be burned and its occupants killed.

AN EXCURSION SCHEME.

[Special.]—A plan is now under discussion to form an excursion once a month, or fortnightly, from this city to the east and return for $100, third class for the round trip. Each of the overland roads would alternate in carrying the excursions, the Union Pacific taking the first, the Denver and Rio Grande the second, the Atlantic and Pacific the next and the Southern Pacific the last, or in reverse order. Excursions from the east to the Pacific coast and return have become so popular, and are so largely patronized that the most far-seeing of railroad men in this city have nearly concluded that excursions from here to the east at low rates would meet the public need. Such an excursion would no doubt prove the most popular action the roads have yet taken. At present the plan is being considered and will soon be brought to the attention of all overland lines.

LEVERSON'S PETITION DENIED.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—The supreme court has denied the application of Montague R. Leverson to restrain Secretary of State Thompson from issuing certificates of election to the successful candidates for congress at the last election. The petition was dismissed.

LARGE ARRIVAL OF CHINESE.

The steamer City of New York, which arrived today from China, brought 531 Chinese destined as follows: San Francisco, 362; Havana, 2; Panama, [illegible]; Victoria, B. C., 164.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

Arrived: Schooner Jennie Wand, Columbia river. Cleared: Steamer Beda, Astoria. Sailed: Steamer San Pedro, Tacoma; steamer Oregon, Astoria.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

North Pacific: fair weather, followed on the coast by local rains. Middle and South Pacific: fair weather.

ALASKA.

NOTES FROM FORT WRANGEL.

VICTORIA, May 29.—Advices from Fort Wrangel under date of May 25 say: The spring weather opens at this place with extraordinary fair weather. We have had less rain than has hitherto been known for years. Business has opened up as fairly as could be expected by both merchants and shippers.

The mail steamship landed 100 tons of merchandise, the bulk of which goes up the Stickeen river to the Cassiar mines. The Wrangel Indians that do the freighting up the river are on a strike for $40 per ton from this place to the head of navigation.

The party of thirty miners who left some twenty days ago for the Yukon were stopped by the Indians at the head of the Chilcat inlet. The Indians wanted to collect toll from the miners for going into their country. The United States steamer Pinta, under command of H. E. Nichols, proceeded to Chilcat for the purpose of seeing what was the cause of the difficulty and have matters put to right. These Indians are the most troublesome Indians in all Alaska, because they live well up the river where ships cannot go, and they think the guns cannot reach them.

On Douglas island the largest quartz mill in the world will start in operation about June 20.

The chief excitement was the trial of the first civil case in the district court, which is holding its May term at Sitka. The trial of the case of the Sitka Trading Company vs the Pacific Coast Steamship Company lasted five days, and was most ably contested, and ended in a hung jury.

Great excitement exists here against the Rev. Sheldon Jackson, the government agent for education in Alaska. His acts in several instances have aroused intense indignation among the citizens. Several meetings have been held, and it was feared at one time that he would be treated with a coat of tar and feathers. The United States grand jury was in session and rumors were rife that not less than three indictments would be presented against him.

The United States steamer Patterson has been several days with us, and leaves in the morning for Fort Simpson.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

NOTES FROM SPOKANE FALLS.

SPOKANE FALLS, May 29.—[Special.]—R. R. Hazard, who fired five bullets into Frank Kemling in a difficulty at White Rose prairie Wednesday evening, waived examination before Judge [illegible] to-day and was held in the sum of $1000 bonds, which he failed to furnish, and was sent to jail at Cheney. Kemling is said to be some better, and there are hopes of his recovery.

Twenty tons of ore from the Old Dominion mine, near Colville, arrived here to-day and is to be shipped to San Francisco for reduction. The ore already tested assays all the way from $301 to $1100 a ton. If one half the assayers' reports are to be relied upon it is the richest mine on the coast.

A foot race for $50 a side this afternoon between S. Wilson, a member of the city council, and E. M. Pound attracted a large portion of the population. It was easily won by the city dad.

The city council has passed an ordinance against drunkenness.

A shooting scrape occurred in a house of ill fame early this morning. It originated over a game of cards. Nobody was hurt. Both parties are under arrest.

Some months ago Paul F. Mohr, of Cincinnati, bonded the water power of Spokane. Since that time he has been east and interested a large number of eastern capitalists in the scheme, and these gentlemen arrived here this week, and are looking at the country. It is said that there is no question but they will purchase the water front and everybody here who owns a dollar's worth of property is anxiously awaiting for the transfer to take place. It will give Spokane Falls a genuine boom.

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN

To-morrow's issue of the SUNDAY OREGONIAN will contain among other features of interest the following special articles:

NORTHERN ITALY.—Mr Sakdorf's article this week treats of the traits of the Tyrol, [illegible] the early settlers, [illegible] history and the interesting scenes in and about [illegible].

OUR LONDON LETTER—Our correspondent writes of the various shows of London, those new to be witnessed and some that have become extinguished by the progress of that great city.

A WILLING CAPTIVE.—Mr Sam L S[illegible] relates a story of pioneer life in the Willamette valley, wherein romance is interwoven with facts in a pleasing way.

MAX O'RELL—This versatile writer presents a letter filled with a little of everything that is interesting in London and Parisian life at present.

"A WESTERN LANDLORD."—Miss Mary Hartwell Cathewood, author of the above named story, has written several tales of western life and character that have found acceptance in Harper's, Lippincott's and other magazines. Her work has a distinct individual flavor both of style and subject that is delectable. Her story is rather [illegible], but at the same time pure and elevated.

PIONEER DAYS.—Article VIII of Mr Clarke's series treats of the history of Portland and its proprietors and the emigration of 1847.

NEW YORK NOTES—Mr George Parsons Lathrop has had an interview with the great inventor, Thomas A Edison, and furnishes the readers of the SUNDAY OREGONIAN with the result containing several startling experiments.

Besides the above several other special articles will appear containing much that is of interest in the regular line of news, literary local and general.

PORTLAND, SATURDAY, MAY 30, 1885.

THE AMERICAN WHEAT CROP.

The price of wheat in Oregon this fall will not depend on any single condition, but none of the several factors going toward making up the "situation" is more important than the harvest result in the United States. Reports of crop prospects throughout the country, official and otherwise, are as usual indefinite and unsatisfactory, only agreeing in the general statement that the harvest will be an unusually short one. The matter of degree is as yet unknown and is the subject of a good deal of discussion in the eastern papers. Bradstreet's Journal of the 16th inst. has a leading article in which it is attempted to show that the shortage in the wheat crop is more of a scare than a reality "That this hue and cry," it says, "will be likely to mislead many cooler heads is made evident by the mournfully despondent editorial of the generally well informed Chicago Tribune, in which it mourns the probable harvest of but 350,000,000 bushels this year, as compared with 513,000,000 of 1884, and with 380,000,000 in 1881—a genuine short crop." Comparing the estimates of six winter wheat states—Illinois, Kansas, Indiana, Michigan, Missouri and Ohio—Bradstreet's draws the inference that the shortage in winter wheat will not exceed 100,000,000 bushels.

The Nashville American, a paper usually well informed, does not agree with this estimate of Bradstreet's, but is of the opinion that the shortage will be greater than any estimate yet given to the public. After collecting all the facts from sources of information within its reach in regard to Kentucky, Missouri, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Michigan, Wisconsin, California, Iowa, West Virginia, Alabama, Georgia, New York, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Virginia, Nebraska, Tennessee and Minnesota, the American finds but one single state, Michigan, which promises a full harvest. It says that in "all the others "the damage from winter-killing insects, late sowing and other causes, has never been properly estimated until the first of this month It is now conceded that in some instances the damage is 50 per cent. greater than it was thought to be a month ago The mild spring weather, which has given the plant a better appearance, has served also to show how irreparable is the damage. Hundreds of fields in the states of Kentucky and Tennessee, upon which the wheat was left standing, with the expectation that it would fill and yield a fair crop, are striking pictures of vegetable desolation In four counties out of five, within these states, if the entire wheat now standing should be garnered, it would not replace the seed that was sown. There can be no exaggeration in this matter. The fact is palpable to every man who can see We think, therefore, that the estimate of a crop of 350,000,000 bushels is very near the truth."

The wheat supply July 1, 1883, (the figures are from Bradstreet's) was 480,000,000 bushels, the crop for that year being 420,000,000, and a visible and invisible supply of 60,000,000 bushels. The home consumption as estimated July 1, 1884, was 334,000,000 bushels, which left 146,000,000 available for export. Of this 107,000,000 bushels of wheat and flour were sent abroad, leaving on hand 34,000,000 bushels. The crop of 1884 was 513,000,000 to which add the 34,000,000 carried over, and it will give 547,000,000 bushels on hand July 1, 1884. Deduct 346,000,000 for home consumption and we have 201,000,000 available for export during the year ending July 1, 1885. The exports from the United States to May 1st have been 75,5[illegible]9,000 bushels. There have been 8,727,000 barrels of flour exported within the same period. Reducing the flour to equivalent bushels of wheat, and the total exports from July 1, 1884, to May 1, 1885, is 114,189,000. This will amount to an average of 11,468,900 bushels per month, which for May and June will add to the amount exported 22,937,800, making a total of 137,626,800 bushels which will be sent abroad during the year ending July 1, 1885. Now deduct the amount required for home consumption and that exported from the amount on hand July 1, 1884, and the total visible supply July 1, 1885, will be 63,37[illegible],20[illegible] bushels. Add to this the estimated crop of 1885, of 350,000,000 bushels, and the available supply for the year 1885–6 will be 413,373,000, or only about 50,600,000 bushels for export, a smaller amount than has been exported since 1877.

RAILROAD REGULATION.

The progress of public opinion on the railroad question is significantly shown in the admission by such prominent representatives of the railroad interest as Albert Fink and C. K. Blanchard that national regulation is desirable. Mr Fink has practically admitted before the senate committee on inter-state commerce that the pool system is a failure, and declared that some way should be devised of framing schedules of rates which should be approved by a federal tribunal and thereafter have the force of law. These schedules should be published and conformity to them enforced. Mr Blanchard, a man of wide experience in railroad management, has also declared his firm belief in the necessity of a national commission with power to settle questions of rates. As representatives of the railroad interest these gentlemen recommend this legislation for the protection of the railroad corporations not against the people but against themselves. The granting of new charters, they say, should be governed by the actual needs of the country, and capitalization restricted. To exercise the regulation they suggest assumes no powers dangerous to the community, and if well performed they would solve many of the complaints raised against the roads. It would interfere only with a branch of the railroad business which is an injury to the country, that of speculative building and exploiting. It would prevent reckless competition, dishonest financiering and the unscrupulous practices of professional wreckers. It would compel all new projects to rest upon the basis of capital actually expended and fairly and fully represented in the securities issued.

As soon as conservative railroad men become convinced that regulation of inter-state commerce by national authority is a necessity of their business for the protection of railroad investments as well as the rights of the public, and will co-operate in its establishment on an equitable basis, it will be comparatively easy to devise a workable system, which will be a benefit to the railroads as well as to the public. It is now generally admitted, even by the grangers, that it is impossible to fix rates by law. There are a thousand incidents and exigencies in railroad management which cannot be provided against and must be dealt with as they arise. Nobody denies that there should be no unjust discriminations, and yet there are discriminations which are inevitable. Sometimes the charging of less for a long than for a short haul on the same line is necessary for the development of business and the successful operation of a road. All depends on whether the adjustments made are necessary and legitimate and so devised as to work no injustice. What is needed in behalf of the public is a constant supervision, systems of rates which shall recognize the principles of fair dealing, and a tribunal which can determine questions of necessity and of right where causes for complaint arise, whether these be real or imaginary.

SANITARY PRECAUTIONS.

A very large proportion of the deaths in every community are due to preventable causes, as is shown by the decrease in the death rate wherever sanitary precautions are taken. In the crowded population of England the death rate has been greatly reduced in fifty years by the peremptory enforcement of the laws on the subject of the public health, and while every sane man ought to be trusted to watch his own well and water supply, nevertheless many sane men neglect this great trust, and stern legislation ought to be enforced by the authorities in every town, large and small, in the matter of pure water and care against contagious and infectious diseases, like diphtheria, scarletina and kindred complaints. When Athens was the mistress of the world in painting, poetry, sculpture, philosophy and oratory, she was so dirty that her people, high and low, died like sheep annually of the plague, for she had not the practical brains to sewer the city. London, Paris and every great city in Europe suffered horribly up to the eighteenth century, when sanitary science on a large scale began to be understood, and to-day America, inhabited by the most practical and inventive people in the world is behind England, France and Germany in the legal protection of the public health. Every death that results from such carelessness and neglect is an impeachment of our public intelligence, a disgrace to our civilization. Alcohol is destructive enough, as we all know, of human life and health, but it is not more destructive than the dreadful diseases that sweep off children and adults, and date back to impure drinking water or kindred gross violations of the laws of health. Diseases are permitted to breed which never ought to have existed, and diseases are permitted to spread whose contagion could be curbed, cabined, confined and quelled by conscientious care. The Rev Dr. Heber Newton of the Episcopal church in a recent sermon said: "Physicians should unite to protest against holding a funeral service when death ensues from infectious disease. The air is death-laden, and to enter the home is to invite sickness and death. Only ignorance or thoughtlessness can be an excuse for inflicting so cruel a wrong on the friends of the dead. I shall never officiate again at such service."

THE CALIFORNIA MAILS.

The business men who have protested against the discontinuance of the ocean mail service between this city and San Francisco are quite right. They speak the sentiment of the whole community of Oregon and Washington. The experience of thirty years shows that the mails cannot be carried promptly and regularly or even safely by the overland route. From October till April the stage road is a succession of quag mires, always hard to travel and at times impassable. Washouts, blinding storms and land slides cannot be guarded against, and when they come, stage traffic according to schedule is a positive physical impossibility. Whenever mail transport has been attempted over this route in the winter it has failed. Half the time the mails have been delayed, often they have been water-soaked, and frequently "jettisoned" by the mirey roadside or during the hazardous passage of some swollen stream. People who have suffered under the delays, damage and total miscarriage of these attempts cannot be convinced by "official correspondence" that a new effort will succeed. The thing cannot be done, and that is all there is about it. If it is attempted, business men will have to give up using the mails and express their letters by steamer, and those who patronize the post must take the chances of having their letters soaked and rubbed to pieces or lost altogether.

It is, we believe, proposed to allow two days for the stage trip, which is now reduced to 125 miles, making the schedule time between Portland and San Francisco four days. The steamers make it in two and a half days. The time is long enough at best. To extend it unnecessarily would be an injury and an offense to the entire community.

A letter in the Minneapolis Tribune from Montana represents a prominent wool grower as saying that "the wool clip of the world has advanced 60 per cent during the past twenty years, or four times faster than the population, and yet prices have fallen only 22 per cent. "It is quite possible," added this wool grower, "that during the next fifteen or twenty years wool may fall another 20 per cent., and yet the business of wool growing taken in connection with the mutton product, in a country so fitted by nature for the business as is Montana, will be one of the most lucrative in the world." It is further stated that "the wool clip of the United States, for the year 1880, is said to have been 264,000,000 pounds, which had increased to 337,500,000 pounds in 1884, and those best informed in the business do not place the product for this year at a much greater figure, owing to the fact that in the eastern states large numbers of sheep perished during the cold weather. In this respect the flocks of Montana were more fortunate and the loss from cold will be very small.

A convict in a Pennsylvania penitentiary killed his keeper, and his counsel, in default of any better plea, tried to save him from the gallows by the claim that he was of unsound mind. There was evidence enough that the man was not in a perfectly normal mental condition when he committed the murder, and experts were ready to testify that he ought not to be held responsible. But the court ruled that "mere moral obliquity of perception" should not protect a person from punishment for a deliberate [illegible] and that moral insanity is not a sufficient [illegible] unless it be shown that it is potent [illegible] to subjugate the intellect, control the will, and render it impossible to do otherwise than yield. In other words, a man may labor under delusion, hallucination or partial insanity, yet if he understands the nature of his act and knows that it is wrong he must be held responsible.

The president has been urged to exclude from the White house the newspaper men who started and printed the falsehood about an alienation between him and his sister. He has not yet determined to do so, though properly incensed that such a scandal should have been started in print.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY DINNER.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN.

Many questions have been asked during the last week as well as in former years, with regard to the management of the annual dinner given in honor of Queen Victoria on her birthday. And in some cases it has appeared that individuals have thought that the British Benevolent Society has not extended as wide a hospitality as it might have done. I think, therefore a few words of explanation may be in order. The British Benevolent Society is, as its name signifies, a purely beneficent society. It is composed chiefly of British residents, who are mainly American citizens, and a few large-hearted Americans who cheerfully subscribe their dues in recognition of the beneficent ends sought to be attained. The funds are jealously guarded. The society has no salaried officer. The object of its existence is to aid any poor and deserving Britisher of either sex, who may by accident be stranded here to find employment, or otherwise to prevent such from becoming a public charge. The queen's birthday dinner has always been given in Portland under the auspices of the society. Its members, however, pay for their own tickets and the few guests invited, as the governor, the officer in command at Vancouver, the mayor, etc., are ordinarily provided for from the small margin remaining between the price agreed to be paid to the caterers and the five dollars always charged for the tickets. And, if as is frequently the case, there is a loss upon the procedure, it is made up by private contribution of the members. (On one occasion I remember such loss to have been nearly $300.) The funds of the society are never touched on this or any other account, save for the charitable uses contemplated in its constitution. Any American gentleman can purchase a ticket for the annual banquet by applying to the secretary or other officers of the society.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE COEUR D'ALENE MINES.—Mr. J M Davis, of Monmouth, Polk county, arrived here yesterday from the Coeur d'Alene mines, where he has been since last fall developing his claim in Dream Gulch, and is stopping at the St Charles. He reports matters as quiet just now, because the water is too high in the main creeks and there is no water in the gulches. The California ditch, built at an expense of $100,000, will be finished early next week and will furnish water for eight good claims. This is expected to liven things up considerably. One year's experience has proved that the Coeur d'Alene district is no longer an experiment, but a permanent industry. Capital is needed to construct ditches and erect stamp mills, and it would be forthcoming but for one drawback, viz. Dispute of the title to claims. A great deal of litigation is going on over possession of claims, but court convenes at Murray the third Monday in July and a good many kinks will be straightened out. There are about 2000 men in the several camps, and while every one is making a good living, a few are making fortunes. Missoula Gulch, the first one above Dream Gulch, has paid better this spring than any other claim. With six men working six hours a day, they have been taking out an average of twenty pounds of gold a week for the past seven weeks. The gold is worth at the mines between $16 50 and $17 per ounce. Mr Davis estimates the output of the mines at this time about $30,000 a week. He tells of an interesting canoe ride down the river from the mouth of Eagle creek to the steamboat landing at the Mission, a distance of forty miles. They came down in four hours. It takes three days to row back. Two men have hewed a canoe out of a tree and make a good living carrying freight up and passengers down. The fare is $5. The craft is forty feet long and will carry from 1800 to 2000 pounds. Mr Davis says that the steamboat ride from Coeur d'Alene post to the mission at this time of year is the finest imaginable.

MAGNIFICENT SLEEPING CAR.—A new and very elegant Pullman sleeper arrived on yesterday's overland train, to be followed in a few days by two others, the three cars to fill a daily line on the Oregon and California between Portland and Ashland. The Pullman company consider this car one of the finest ever turned out of their works. It came direct from the New Orleans exposition, where it attracted a great deal of attention. The car is seventy feet long and contains ten sections—drawing-room smoking room, buffet, two toilet-rooms exclusively for ladies, and one with two marble top washstands and other conveniences at the opposite end of the car for gentlemen. The car is carpeted throughout with body brussels. The sections are finished in mahogany and upholstered in old gold plush. The drawing room is finished in mahogany and upholstered in blue plush, and is provided with a Tennessee washstand, and is entered by an antique door of the Queen Anne style. The smoking room is finished in polished oak and embossed leather, and is furnished with two double seats and a sofa upholstered in green plush. The buffet is furnished with an elegant set of decorated China, silver and glassware, all necessary cooking utensils refrigerator, etc, and tables to seat thirty-two people to lunch. The car has seat room and sleeping accommodations for fifty passengers. All parts of the car are connected with the porter's room by an electric annunciator. It is mounted on six wheeled trucks, with forty-two-inch paper wheels. This car will be at the Oregon and California (east side) depot to-day and to-morrow, and will be open for public inspection and criticism. It goes out in regular service Monday morning. The Oregon and California railroad company, by reduced fares, faster time, and a daily line of elegant sleepers, are evidently competing for a share of the large passenger business between Portland and San Francisco.

IMPROVEMENTS IN HALL STREET CHURCH.—Within the past two weeks very gratifying changes have been effected in the interior of the church edifice of the Hall Street M. E. church. The walls of the various rooms of the building have all been calsomined a light blue, all the wood work has been finished with a beautiful black walnut graining, all the pews and benches have been newly stained and varnished, additional chandeliers have been hung lighting the auditorium in the evening in a very superior manner, the old curtains have been replaced by new ones of French grey color, linoleum has been laid in the vestibule, all giving the auditorium and other rooms a beautiful and finished appearance, such as never possessed heretofore. The expense for these improvements was all provided for in advance by the ladies society, as a result of their very large excursion to Multnomah falls a short time since. The debt against this church last September of over $1000, has been provided for, $700 having been actually paid, and the other $300 covered by good subscriptions. The seats in this church are free to all, the congregations are increasing, the attendance at the Sunday school during the past four months has averaged over 200 a Sunday, and the society is already considering plans for the enlargement of the building, so as to give the church over 400 sittings. National services, including patriotic music, are to be held in this church next Sunday evening. The public, especially strangers, are cordially invited. Usual services during the day. Over 100 additional members have been received by this society thus far this conference year.

LIVELY TRADE IN ASH LUMBER.—Amid the general depression of the lumber trade in this section, it is pleasing to learn that there is one branch of it which has not been affected. Messrs. Forsythe & Sons have a mill at Champoeg which cuts principally ash and maple lumber, which finds a ready sale in California, where it is preferred to eastern ash for making furniture, etc. They cut from eight to ten thousand feet of ash lumber per day, and still are not able to fill orders as fast as they come in. They are now busy filling a large order for the Central Pacific railroad company, who will use the lumber in building cars at Sacramento. The ash trees used are found along the Willamette river between Champoeg and Salem. The largest are about four feet through. Maple is found in the same locality, and some of it is very handsome. One plank of ash shipped a few days since, eighteen feet in length contained 142 feet, and planks containing over 100 feet are frequently sawed. They used to cut considerable of alder lumber, which is valued for making furniture, but the supply of this wood is about exhausted. Ash and maple are also becoming scarce in this vicinity, and will soon have to be rafted from the upper river. Fir lumber is also cut to supply the local demand, which has been quite extensive of late, as the country around Champoeg is improving rapidly. Many farmers there have gone into hop culture, and among the buildings erected have been many hop houses.

THE MARION COUNTY MURDER.—The parties arrested for causing the death of B Coffey by beating him, near Independence, on Sunday last, are all young men. Bill Lawrence is about 18 years old, John Cooper is [illegible] and Jeff Matney is fatherless and is about 19 years of age. Tuck, who accompanied Coffey to Independence, has been held to appear as a witness. The Statesman says "Tuck has been very much reserved since the affray, and has failed to give any very definite idea of it. He claims to have been too drunk to have taken cognizance of what was going on during the row but he had, it seems, enough presence of mind to take the old man home immediately after the affray. But a thing occurred yesterday which will explain Tuck's singular reserve at this important crisis. Young Lawrence's father yesterday told one of the most reliable men in this county the following or similar words. 'If Tuck does not swear just right I'll put him where the dogs wont get him.' Tuck is a timid man and has evidently taken the hint."

OR AN INTERESTING EXPERIENCE.—A few days ago Prentice had an urgent call from St Helens for a man to put an organ in order. Francis was sent and found that a "smart Aleck" in the town had undertaken to correct some irregularity in the thing. He had removed the keys to get at the trouble and attempted to replace them, but finding that a difficult matter proceeded to whittle the keys to make them fit, which feat he finally accomplished after almost an entire night's struggle, and then one key was left over. This was taken home for safe keeping. The darned thing failing to work a message was accordingly sent to Prentice. Francis found what would have ordinarily occupied [illegible] than an hour's work, a job on his hands that [illegible] the day. When he reported to Prentice [illegible] the person was the maddest man in town, [illegible] was warranted to last a number of years and [illegible] organ repairer had [illegible]

EXHIBITION BUILDING FOR STOCK.—The [illegible] at the low cost of [illegible] the continued [illegible] exhibition building to be erected on the grounds leased by the [illegible] A. N. King near where Cole's circus showed last summer. It will be 60x130 feet and will contain 101 box stalls for the accommodation of animals placed on exhibition. Overhead will be a loft, full size, for hay, grain, etc. and underneath a basement for hogs, sheep and poultry. The contractor is C. Carmichael, who undertakes the job for $2200. He will commence work at once and expects to have the building completed by July 1.

NO EMIGRANT CARS INTO PORTLAND.—For the present and until some arrangement be twee[n] companies can be made, no Northern Pacific or Union Pacific sleepers will arrive or depart from here. It is a rule between all connecting lines for a company using the rolling stock of another line to pay for the use of it. The O R & N Co has heretofore paid the two eastern roads 3 cents a mile for the use of the emigrant sleepers, thus paying the Northern Pacific $12 and the Short Line $21 for each round trip of a car. As the O R & N are amply provided with their own rolling stock, they declined to pay the mileage, but offered to transport the sleepers free. Both companies refused to waive the mileage, so that hereafter emigrant passengers east bound will be carried in day coaches, upon the regular express trains, as far as Wallula and Huntington, and west bound emigrants will take day coaches at these points. On the Northern the inconvenience will be slight, as the ride between Wallula and Portland is less than twelve hours.

DEATH OF CAPT IRVING STEVENS.—News of the death at Astoria of Captain Irving Stevens, the well known river pilot, was received here yesterday and occasioned much surprise among river men, because it was not known that he was dangerously ill. He was here for the last time on the 11th inst and went over to his farm on the Cowlitz. A heavy rain came up, he was wet to the skin, and it threw him into a rheumatic fever. His age was 48 years. Captain Stevens came to this state from Illinois in 185–, with his parents who are now living in Astoria. In 1867 he learned the lower Willamette and Columbia rivers, under the instruction of his brother-in-law, Capt. Hiram Brown, and since then has been continuously engaged in service as pilot. For twenty years he has piloted ocean steamships. He leaves a wife and two children. Among river men and other acquaintances, Capt. Stevens was very popular.

COMPLAINS OF A NUISANCE.—R. L. Freedom writes to THE OREGONIAN to make complaint against men "who crowd heaps of manure almost against their neighbors' houses to engender miasma." He winds up as follows: "But our rich men will soon go to their summer resorts, while our poor people, although more refined, will have to stay and endure all this bad smell. Where is the board of health?" The board of health can always be found at the police office, and if Mr. Freedom knows of any such nuisance as he complains of all he has to do is to notify the chief of police and it will be abated at once. As for poor but refined people living by and inhaling the odors of a manure heap all summer, that is all bosh. The only really refined people in the city who are poor are reporters, and any one who tries to enrich their brains through the medium of their olfactories will smell something not put down in the books.

LIVE LIZARD IN AN EGG.—A reliable citizen of Portland yesterday stated to a reporter of THE OREGONIAN that his daughter while breaking eggs for making a cake saw some strange object in one of them, and on extracting it found it to be a young lizard nearly two inches in length and alive. She placed it in water and kept it alive for several days, and it was seen by many of the neighbors. The gentleman did not wish his name used in this item, as he is well aware it will be deemed untrue. The reporter, while unable to conceive how such an improbable story could be true, has every confidence in the honesty of his informant, and is sure that the latter believes implicitly in the truthfulness of his statement. It is really too bad that the lizard was thrown out after being kept a few days. It should have been preserved in spirits, as it would have furnished a partial verification of the strange story.

MEMORIAL DAY AT VANCOUVER.—Portlanders desiring to witness the feature of the day at Vancouver, will leave Portland by steamers Telephone and Lurline, and arrive in time to see the grand military and civic parade. The full regiment of the Fourteenth infantry will form with the light battery on the garrison grounds. The Knights of Pythias, fifty strong, will fall in next, followed by the fire department, mayor and common council, General Miles, president of the day, and Colonel J. C. Hunt, the orator, and chaplain, Rev. Mr Robertson, Ellsworth Post, G. A. R., and citizens. Dr. Randolph Smith is chief marshal, with Hon Hubert Daniels, A. H. Tinker and A. B. Eastham as aides. The procession will have arrived at City park before 12 o'clock, at which time boats and stages start for Portland, arriving in time to witness the ceremonies here.

RESTRAINING ORDER MODIFIED.—Judge Deady yesterday announced a decision in the case of the Northern Pacific express company against Wells, Fargo & Co., upon the defendant's motion to modify the restraining order, which he granted. In substance the modifying order says: "Wells, Fargo & Co. will not be required to receive or transport any express matter without the prepayment of charges, nor to advance to the plaintiff on such receipt, the accrued charges on said matter whenever according to its usual mode of doing business in such cases it concludes in good faith the same is not sufficient security therefor. In case said accrued charges are not so advanced to the plaintiff the defendant must collect them from the consignee, on the delivery of the package, and account to the plaintiff at Portland therefor."

HARVEST APPROACHING.—Already symptoms of approaching harvest are seen and heard on every hand. Bundles of green wheat in the flower are to be seen in many offices and interested parties are daily figuring on the surplus of this season's crop. Every day large threshing machines can be seen lumbering through the streets to the depots and wharves to be shipped to different parts of the country. It will not be very long till the clatter of the self binder and the screeching roar of the thresher will be heard throughout the length and the breadth of the state, and the bands of threshers will descend on the good things prepared by the farmers' wives like swarms of locusts, devouring all before them and kicking if they do not get pie three times a day.

FISHING AT THE CASCADES.—Fish wheels at the Cascades have nearly ceased operation owing to the low stage of the water which is now six feet lower than at this time last year. Warren's cannery is running about half the time in hope that a rise of water will take place and the wheels be enabled to do a better business. There are six wheels at the Cascades and should the water fall a little more no fish will be caught. Some of the fishermen think that there will be no more fishing at the Cascades this season and that the June rise has all come down, but that is improbable so early in the season. There is a poor prospect for very high water, but the river will most likely rise sufficient to set the wheels in operation within a week or two.

HARD TO PROVE VAGRANCY.—A fellow calling himself Jack Martin, one of the numerous contemptible opium smoking hounds who disgrace the community, came up before Judge Moreland yesterday on a charge of vagrancy. The fellow is known to have lived upon the earnings of a fallen woman for a long time, and to be essentially worthless and useless, but it was deemed necessary to summons enough witnesses to try a man for murder in order to prove the charge against him. If it could be so arranged that such fellows should be made to show that they followed some legitimate business, which they could easily do if such were the case, the courts would be saved much time and trouble. Martin's case was taken under advisement.

NO LEASE YET.—A report circulated here yesterday that a joint lease of the O. R. & N. to the Northern Pacific and Union Pacific had been consummated lacks confirmation. Regular press dispatches say nothing of it, and none of the officers of the O. R. & N. received any such news. The feeling about O. R. & N. headquarters is that the road will be leased, but they remember the experience in the same line with the Northern. The proposed lease was so far along last year that August 1 had been fixed as the date on which the Northern would take control of the O. R. & N., and officers of the latter company had actually begun work on making out inventories of the property.

SEVEN YEARS IN THE PENITENTIARY.—Ah Sing, the keen witted Chinaman who robbed Robert Wiltz at the White house of $65, a gold watch and chain and a suit of clothes, pleaded guilty when brought before Judge Stearns yesterday, evidently having heard that justice tempered with mercy was dispensed to the penitent. And so it was. He was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary at hard labor, the judge afterward remarking that if the county had been put to the trouble of a trial he would have doubled the term of imprisonment.

SUPPLEMENTARY TOURNAMENT PROPOSED.—Arrangements are making to have a firemen's tournament at City View park on the return of the seven valley companies from Astoria. [illegible] of them have to pass through here and on their way home and could probably be induced to remain one or two days. Correspondence on the subject has begun, and should any number of organizations signify a willingness to take part, sufficient inducement in the way of cash prizes and medals will be offered to make the contest an object to competitors.

BILLIARD MATCH.—A match game of billiards will be played this evening at the Brunswick parlors between Sargent and a leading amateur.

ANOTHER MR COFFEY.—It was not THE OREGONIAN'S carrier, Mr Coffey, who died at Salem the other day, but another man of the same name. The former telegraphed this office a few minutes after the papers reached Salem: "You've got the wrong man. I am worth a thousand dead men yet." He had the pleasure of reading his obituary notice, a favor granted to few persons on this mundane sphere. But it was a neat "send off," wasn't it, Brother Coffey, and you wouldn't have said more, would you, if you had the writing of it?

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—The regular monthly concert of the Taylor Street Methodist Sunday school will be given to-morrow, commencing promptly at the close of the morning preaching services. A programme of rare excellence will be presented. Mrs Wetzell, Mrs D Goodsell and Miss Lizzie Anderson, the two latter of whom have spent the past winter in California, besides many other of Portland's musical favorites, will take an active part in the exercises. Admission free, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

DROWNED ON PEACOCK SPIT.—The fishing boat of Frederick Nelson of Astoria drifted into the breakers on Peacock spit, at the mouth of the Columbia, during the heavy blow last Tuesday, and overturned. Nelson came up underneath the boat, where he was two hours and a half before his rescuers could tow the boat into still water and right it. The boat puller, Sam Anderson, was swept away and drowned when the accident first occurred. Nelson's escape is considered something remarkable.

TWO CHINAMEN INDICTED.—The grand jury yesterday investigated two more Chinese cases and returned indictments in each instance. Ah Ling is charged with the crime of burglary about two weeks ago at the residence of Columbia Kelly, the U. S. marshal for this district. The second Celestial, Ah Hin, is indicted for stealing a shoulder of bacon from the warehouse of John McCraken. Both prisoners will be arraigned before Judge Stearns to-day.

SUIT TO RECOVER PROPERTY.—The attention of Judge Smith and a jury in department No. 1 of the state circuit court was occupied yesterday with the trial of the case of W. H. Andrus vs A. J. and Levi Knott. A verdict will probably be reached to-day. The suit involves the possession of a strip of land adjoining the river near the Jefferson street ferry slip in East Portland, and was first instituted against H. A. Hogue, being afterwards transferred to the foregoing named defendants.

WHO LOST THE LETTERS?—Dr. A. J. Nicklin yesterday picked up several letters and papers on the stairway of Union block, among which was a draft of considerable value. The letters are plainly addressed to E. L. Pangburn, who is undoubtedly the owner of the draft. Pangburn is now captain of the steamer Annie Faxon, plying on the Snake river, and the singular thing about the lost letters is that he has not been in the city for over two weeks.

POSTOFFICE HOURS TO-DAY.—In order to accommodate many people who desire it, the postoffice will be open to-day from 10 to 11 A. M., and the general delivery and carriers' windows only will be open from 6 to 7 P. M. The carriers whose routes are in the outskirts of the city will make no delivery, but the mail may be called for at the carriers' window in the evening.

GRUMBLES

Is the State Board of Immigration an "Offensive Partisan?"

Down at the rooms of the state board of immigration there is a scrap book in which are carefully preserved all of the items relating to the board which have appeared in the different papers of the state. Favorable or unfavorable as these notices or criticisms may be they are laid away for ready reference. As a whole these items coming from a dozen counties of the state, furnish an interesting study and commentary upon the various phases of selfishness. The editor of the Eugene City Register after looking over these scrap book items says:

And now some of the Multnomah county papers are getting after the state board of immigration, claiming that the business of the board is run entirely in the interests of the transportation companies, that the sucker they can get a ticket to [illegible] the greater the distance from Portland the better they are satisfied having clipped [illegible] from the [illegible]. Well, [illegible] Our [illegible] Marion and Yamhill have been grumbling for weeks, Douglas and southern Oregon have sent up several grumbles [illegible] the central office [illegible] festive immigrant [illegible] and pour his ducats in our especial coffers we shall become a dissatisfied race of grumblers. [illegible] the weather has been a sufficient [illegible] for grumbling but we warn everybody that the [illegible] appointments of the Cleveland administration [illegible] board to locate every immigrant coming to the state in at least four counties is likely to provoke [illegible] grumbling [illegible]

BIG FIGURES ON WHEAT

Figures to Show that the Surplus of the Inland Empire will be 350,000 Tons.

Several well informed grain men and millers of eastern Washington estimate that the surplus wheat for export from the inland empire after the coming harvest will not be far from 350,000 tons and is as likely to exceed those figures as to fall under them. This estimate which all conservative men must regard as too high, is based on the acreage now in cultivation and on last year's output. Assessors returns from all wheat growing counties in eastern Washington, from Umatilla, Gilliam, Wasco, Union and Baker counties in Oregon, and from the Palouse country in Idaho which have recently been collected at Walla Walla show that there is in cultivation at this time a trifle over 600,000 acres. The optimists consider that the country will average twenty five bushels to the acre. This is [illegible] and, according to this calculation [illegible] 000 000 bushels or 450 000 tons—not counting in the [illegible] 000 tons. Allow in 600,000 bushels for held for seed and 50,000 for home consumption say 35,000 tons there remains 350,000 tons for export.

Isn't twenty five bushels an acre too wild for an average? asked an OREGONIAN reporter of a well known wheat buyer who had received these figures. Would not seventeen or eighteen bushels be nearer correct?

I think if the good weather holds out till harvest, answered the merchant, that the average will be well up to twenty-five bushels though that is a pretty high estimate. I believe that the average yield of winter wheat in the Walla Walla country in ordinary years has been about twenty-two bushels to the acre. As a rule very little bad land has been sown to wheat hence the average is large. You must remember that this is the wheat year. Such a healthy growth has never been known. There is another thing to be thought about. All the growing wheat this year is in the best ground. Farmers have learned that it don't pay to put wheat into the poorer land, so I am inclined to think that the average will be above twenty three bushels anyhow.

But the spring wheat presents a less favorable [illegible] suggested the reporter.

That is true but the area of spring wheat is less than 10 per cent of the growing crop and it will only cut a small figure in the average.

While the above estimates seem to be made on a reasonable basis they are certainly too high. Last year's surplus for export in the Inland Empire was about 120,000 tons though nearly 20,000 tons were saved for seed and it is estimated that between 25,000 and 40,000 tons were not cut, not taken care of, or fed after it was cut. Whether all the surplus this year will get to market depends on whether the Palouse and Moscow branches of the O. R. & N. road will be built. Should this work be put off for another year at least 40,000 tons will be stored or fed, or both, because farmers cannot afford to haul it the long distance to present railroad depots. Officers of the O. R. & N. company who, of course, are deeply interested in ascertaining the probable tonnage and have learned all there is to learn in advance, are of the opinion that the wheat and flour from this year's crop which will pass The Dalles west bound will exceed [illegible] 000 tons.

THE STAGE

THE NEW MARKET.—A fair house witnessed the performance of Damon and Pythias by the Frederick Warde company last evening. As Damon Mr. Warde was fully up to the requirements of the part, and we have only to reiterate what we said last week. At the matinee to-day that most beautiful of romantic plays, Ingomar the Barbarian, will be given with Mr. Warde as Ingomar and Miss Willett as Parthenia. To-night, for the last time, "Virginius" will be given. This is Frederick Warde's masterpiece and those who have not witnessed it should not fail to avail themselves of this last opportunity, for some time, to see one of the finest most life like personations on the stage.

THE CASINO.—There will be only two more performances of The Mascot, which makes way for Gilbert and Sullivan's Pirates of Penzance Monday. This evening Miss Lester will sing The Star Spangled Banner.

An analysis of Dr. Price's Baking Powder and the "Royal" made by me shows that Dr. Price's is composed of the best grades of Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda, and that it gives off, per pound, eighty cubic inches more of Carbonic Acid Gas than does the "Royal." The "Royal" was found to contain not only a very inferior grade of Bicarbonate of Soda, but it also contains a notable quantity of an objectionable ingredient—Ammonia—which should never be admitted into our daily bread.

The "Royal" being so strongly Alkaline, the biscuits made with it cannot be as readily insalivated and digested as those made with Dr. Price's.

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY, May 29.

Memorial day will be recognized as a half holiday in the city trade. Transportation lines will receive freight up to 12 M., after which time business will be wholly suspended. The forenoon will be largely devoted to shipping, as no new business is expected. Weather continues brilliant all over the coast. Small fruits are fast ripening, and the market is better supplied. Strawberries sold at 5c for best. The middle of next week will probably see them out of market. Blackberries coming in freely, but the quality is generally poor, the best selling at 5c. A few raspberries were offered at 10c, but the sale is limited as yet. Other fruits are without change.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Last twenty-four hours 1760 ctls wheat, 180 bbls flour, 44 [illegible] oats, 167 ctls millstuff, 62[illegible] lbs wool, 2[illegible] lbs hides, [illegible] eggs, [illegible] pkgs butter, 208 [illegible] fruit, 103 [illegible] lime. Also 587 ctls wheat, 1190 bbls flour, [illegible] ctls oats, 98 ctls barley, 300 lbs wool, 203 [illegible] hides from the eastern section.

FREIGHTS—Market inactive, with no inquiry and [illegible] probability of anything being done for grain.

WHEAT—Lower. Advices late yesterday and to-day [illegible] a much weaker feeling here, and the market is very unsettled. The decline abroad was looked for, and many operators have been working against it for some days. Those having needs paid full prices, but these are now so well provided against that the situation is greatly eased, and all [illegible] lower to-day. Interior limits are reduced in one known instance to $1 [illegible]. A falling market is a hard one to quote, and late quotations have been above the views of most buyers, although valley wheat sold as stated. It is offered freely at $1 37 here to-day without finding a buyer. Walla Walla went begging at $1 27½ free on board, and there seemed to be no buyers at all to-day. Needs are now so small that only a milling market is expected, without there is a chance to gather a cargo cheaply. Quotations are suspended for the present.

FLOUR—Light call ruling, and values hardly steady as last quoted.

OATS—Offerings fair, with as much business at 46@[illegible]c for best feed grades. [illegible]

CHICKENS—In slow sale to-day at $4@4 50 for old; market well supplied.

EGGS—For fresh 18c is generally asked. Arrivals include considerable that is stale, and that weakens the market. For round lots 1[illegible]@16c was accepted.

WOOL—Receipts rather light. The market [illegible] quiet, with only a fair amount of business doing, within the range of last quotations.

ASSOCIATED PRESS MARKETS.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, May 29.—Governments have been quiet, steady and unchanged. The stock exchange will be closed until 10 o'clock on Monday next.

President Harris of the Northern Pacific company says there is no truth whatever in a statement recently made regarding the lease of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, in which it was alleged that terms had been settled and counsel instructed to prepare the lease for signatures.

Stocks have been a little more active to-day, total sales being [illegible]8,200 shares, but of this amount over 60 per cent. consisted of transactions in St Paul, Lackawanna, Union Pacific, Northwestern and New York Central, in which sales ranged between 30,000 and 3[illegible],000 shares each in the order named. Prices were somewhat irregular. Declines this evening compared with twenty-four hours ago range from ¼ to 1 per cent. In early trading this morning there was a drive made at the market which reduced prices small fractions from the opening quotations, but which was met in a short time by sustaining orders. The highest prices were reached generally before midday. The afternoon market became very dull, with a drooping tendency, but without any decided breaks, which continued until 1 o'clock, when prices again yielded. The decline was checked shortly before 3 o'clock, and the market closed steady, on a rally of ⅛ to ¼ per cent. from the lowest quotations of the day. Pacific Mail, Union Pacific and Western Union were among the strongest on the active list, yielding on final quotations ¼ to ⅜ per cent.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

OREGON

Lane county pioneers will hold a reunion at Eugene City, June 4.

A Presbyterian church with nineteen members was organized at Alkali last Sunday.

Lafayette is going to celebrate the 4th of July. One of the attractive features is to be a barbecue dinner.

Thirty immigrants direct from Fannin county, Texas, arrived at Eugene City last Saturday. They are well pleased with the appearance of the country, and have come to stay.

An old man by the name of Bond, employed on Hoover's ranch, near Fossil, Wasco county, was found in an insensible condition on the morning of the 11th, and soon after died.

Alkali Enterprise: Nearly all our sheepmen lost more or less of their flocks from the effects of the late rains and cold spell coming just after shearing, causing the sheep to chill to death. As near as we are able to learn, such loss will run from twenty to 100 in each band.

Newberg letter: Two accidents with firearms the past week in our little burg. Riley Smith went to pick up his gun in a hurry to shoot a crow; the gun went off, taking the end off his thumb and crippling two fingers. Reuben Frank got a bullet through his hand while handling a revolver.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Victoria Times: A discovery of gold bearing quartz is reported near the falls on Goldstream, which was brought to light by a cutting on the Island railway. The attention of Mr Hunter, chief engineer of the works, was called to the quartz, and upon examination it was found to contain gold in large quantities, one quartz specimen being rich in the metal.

A gentleman from the Cariboo mines gives the Victoria Times the following information of progress in that district: The Yellow Lion company on Antler creek are on good pay. The Mason company, since their accident, have cleaned out the shaft and flange of upper suction barrel, which was badly broken, compelling them to send to Victoria for a new flange. Upon its receipt they will resume work. They also intend erecting their sawmill. There are a number of other claims on this creek owned and worked by whites, also some 200 Chinese are at work and taking out considerable gold. The Jarvis, Simms and McWha companies and three Chinese companies, all hydraulic claims, have commenced work, and expect a good season. The Waverly company commenced piping ten days ago and are doing splendid work. This company have directly expended between $30,000 and $35,000 in opening their claim, and expect to be on pay next fall. The Cosmopolitan company expect to give a good account of themselves as soon as the water lowers, having taken 110 ounces for their last week's work and 50 ounces for their last day's work. The Big and Little Snowshoe, Keithley and Forks Quesnelle, on Keithley creek, and a number of other creeks in this section are actively engaged in mining, there being quite a number of whites and at a low estimate 350 Chinese. Slough, Rush, Lindholm and Lightning creeks are being worked by about 35 whites and some Mongolians, and take out a considerable quantity of gold.

WASHINGTON

The annual report of Olympia public schools shows that [illegible] pupils were enrolled during the past year.

A twenty-four foot fir hauled at Blackman Bros' Pilchuck camp in Snohomish county last week measured eighty inches in diameter at the small end and ninety-six inches across at the large end. It will scale 14,000 feet of lumber.

HOUSE BILL NO 190

Interview with Mr W H Biggs of Wasco in Reference to its Loss

THE DALLES, Or., May 2[illegible]th.—The reported loss of House Bill No 190, has attracted much attention in this community and great indignation is felt that the state officers, into whose keeping the bill passed after it left the senate should have given any one an opportunity to remove or destroy it, or should have been so careless as to lose it.

Knowing the interest which Mr Biggs of Wasco took in the measure and that he was instrumental in securing its passage, your reporter took the trouble to see him while in the city last Tuesday, and to make some inquiries in regard to the history of the bill. The following is in substance the interview:

Reporter—Mr Biggs, have you heard the report that the House Bill No 190, requiring railroad companies to build side tracks to and receive freight from warehouses along their lines, supposed to have passed the last legislature, did not become a law?

Mr Biggs—I have, but as I was at Salem for the purpose of seeing the bill through, I knew it did pass both houses. It passed the senate on the last Thursday of the session about [illegible] o'clock P M, and, as I supposed, was sent to the governor at once.

R.—Do you know whether or not it was signed by the governor?

Mr B.—I did not see him sign it, and I never heard him say that he signed it. But I have heard that, when asked, before the bill reached him, if he intended to sign it, he replied that he should sign it unless there was some constitutional objection to it. Unless I am greatly mistaken it was reported next day after it was sent to him as having been signed. I certainly read either in THE OREGONIAN or some other paper a report of its having been approved. I was particularly interested in its becoming a law, and watched very closely every proceeding relating to it.

R.—With whom did the bill originate?

Mr B.—I think I may say I had considerable to do with it. The people near Wasco were very anxious to have a warehouse established at the mouth of Scott canyon, about three miles above Grant station, but the railroad company refused to put in a side track or receive freight at that point. At the request of a number of my neighbors I went to Salem for the sole purpose of trying to effect the passage of a measure that would compel the company to accommodate us. Upon my arrival at Salem I learned that Mr Beall, member of the house from Jackson, was interested in a like measure, and I at once sought an acquaintance with him. He agreed to introduce the bill if I would have it drafted. I consulted several prominent attorneys and employed one of them to draw up the bill as we desired it. This bill was introduced, and after two or three slight changes had been made in it, it was passed by the house and sent to the senate, where, after considerable opposition, it was finally passed the day before adjournment. I remained to see it through and supposed until last week that it was safe in the hands of the officers of the state.

R.—If reports are true you did not watch it quite long enough.

Mr B.—I did not suppose it was necessary for me to stand by the governor's elbow to see it signed, or to bring it home in my pocket in order to have it become a law. I feel perfectly satisfied the bill was approved and afterwards taken from the files.

R.—When and from whom did you first learn that it did not become a law?

Mr B.—Last Thursday I, with some of my neighbors, met Mr Rowe of the O R & N Co, at Grant's station for the purpose of selecting a place for the desired side track at Scott canyon. Mr Rowe then told me the governor had told him the bill did not become a law, that it did not pass the house. I replied that I was present when it passed the house. He then said, "perhaps the governor said it did not pass the senate." He then added that it was a little strange, for Senator Simon had told him, soon after the close of the session, that the bill had passed, and when Governor Moody informed him the bill was not a law he supposed Mr Simon was mistaken.

R.—Will the loss of the bill defeat the provisions?

Mr B.—Mr Rowe informed me that he intended to put in the side track we are interested in the same as if the bill had not been lost.

R.—How do people seem to feel about the loss of the bill?

Mr B.—They seem to think there is something very wrong about it, and are much incensed that a matter of so great importance should have been so neglected by those entrusted with the legislative business of the state, and it will be hard to persuade the people of this county that the bill was not stolen or destroyed by interested parties. Since coming to The Dalles I find that people here are even more exercised over it than people in the country. I am told that a suit is now pending between the Wasco Warehouse company and the O R & N Co in relation to the question that bill was intended to meet, and that parties here were more interested in the bill than I before knew.

Mr Biggs declined to express any opinion as to how the bill could have been disposed of or whom he thought was at fault in relation to it.

An Efficient Remedy

In all cases of Bronchial and Pulmonary Affections is AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. As such it is recognized and prescribed by the medical profession, and in many thousands of families, for the past forty years, it has been regarded as an invaluable household remedy. It is a preparation that only requires to be taken in very small quantities, and a few doses of it administered in the early stages of a cold or cough will effect a speedy cure, and may, very possibly, save life. There is no doubt whatever that

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has preserved the lives of great numbers of persons, by arresting the development of Laryngitis, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, and Pulmonary Consumption, and by the cure of those dangerous maladies. It should be kept ready for use in every family where there are children, as it is a medicine far superior to all others in the treatment of Croup, the alleviation of Whooping Cough, and the cure of Colds and Influenza, ailments peculiarly incidental to childhood and youth. Promptitude in dealing with all diseases of this class is of the utmost importance. The loss of a single day may, in many cases, entail fatal consequences. Do not waste precious time in experimenting with medicines of doubtful efficacy while the malady is constantly gaining a deeper hold, but take at once the speediest and most certain to cure,

How the Capitol Building Looks and Wha[t] may be Seen Therein

Difference between the Senate and House of Repr[esentatives] A Tribute the Washington Monument and the Thoughts it Created

[Written for the Sunday Oregonian.]

Let me describe [illegible] plain Anglo-Saxon, th[e] general appearance of the United States capit[ol] and especially the halls of legislation when con[gress] is in session. Every school boy know[s] how the east front of the capitol looks—almo[st] without exception the view is taken from th[is] side. In area it covers over three and one-hal[f] acres, is seven hundred and fifty-one feet long, three hundred and seven feet high from its bas[e] line and consists of a main building and tw[o] wings. Bostonians make a deal of sport of it[s] architectural appearance, saying that its lengt[h] is out of all proportion to its length, but th[e] dear people of the hub must remember that th[e] corner stone was laid almost a century ago and that "utility first, symmetry second" was th[e] motto then. Besides, as I understand it, th[e] first plans did not contemplate the extension that now appear. The senate chamber is in th[e] north wing of the building, the hall of repre[sentatives] in the south. The presiding officer[s] of the senate and house sit so as to face each other and around each one are arranged in [a] semi-circle the members of his congres[sional] body. Taking the senate chamber, first an aisle leading from its south entrance t[o] the chair of the president of the senate, divide[s] that body in two parts. To the right of th[e] president, as he faces the senate, sit all of th[e] democratic members, to the left all of the re[publican] members. The desk of the presiding officer is considerably elevated above the floo[r] of the senate, while immediately in front and [a] trifle below his is a long desk at which sit th[e] chief clerk, the reading, legislative and othe[r] clerks. Again, immediately in front and below this are tables used by the stenographers in re[porting] the proceedings of the senate. Th[e] pages find seats as best they can on the step[s] leading up to the presiding officer's chair. [A] gallery extends entirely round the chamber, th[e] space above the president's desk being allotted to reporters of the press, the space opposite t[o] the diplomatic corps, a small portion to familie[s] of senators and the remainder to the general public.

Precisely at noon, when congress is in session, the vice president of the United States, accompanied by the chaplain of the senate, enters the chamber. The former calls the senate to order, the latter offers a short prayer, and the upper branch of the highest legislative body in the Union is ready to transact business. Oftentimes there are not more than a half dozen senators in the room when the clock strikes twelve, but they enter shortly afterward, seat themselves in the well-cushioned chairs and begin to look over the mail that the pages have just distributed. It is a study to see the legislators enter the senate chamber. A few, most of them young in official life, enter with pompous strides, walk to the door of the cloak rooms, taking care, however, not to be out of sight of the multitude in the gallery, have their wraps removed by attendants, then, with assumed dignity, they seat themselves. A number of swells were not long ago seated in a fashionable hotel at Saratoga. A stranger entered, walked quietly to the desk, registered, glanced shyly at the people in the corridor, then asked to be shown his room. "Must be an important man," said one. "Reckon he is," replied another. "Men that don't put on any more show than he does are always big ones," spoke a third. It is much like this in congress. If the visitor sees a senator who has natural dignity, quiet deportment, unassuming manners, and questions who he is, the answer will very likely be Sherman, Edmunds, Logan, Frye, Vance, Brown or others of the foremost men. Yet the leaders of this august body are nothing more than men. All Oregonians are familiar with ex Senator Nesmith's experience when he first entered the Senate. I have noticed that the experiences of hundreds of others coincide with his. Almost every hour of the session can be heard in the strangers' gallery expressions like "Why, those senators are just like us." "Common looking people, aren't they?" How disappointed some persons appeared to be to find that their ideal statesmen are only human, to see that they look, walk, talk, act the same as other men! Their mental idols seemed to fade as rapidly as the idols of the ancients fell before the hands of the invader, and I often wondered if our strictly rural friends took home with them any happier hearts for having the images of a lifetime displaced in a moment but forever by looking upon cold reality.

I was one day standing on the steps of the capitol talking to a western farmer, when Senator Evarts stepped out, hands in pockets, and walked toward a street car. I mentioned the name of the eminent jurist, about whom my companion had just been asking. By the bye, the new senator is a somewhat shriveled bit of humanity. "That him?" was the exclamation, "why my plow boy, Jim, is a better looking fellow than he is," and the farmer strolled away in seeming disgust.

As almost all legislation is either shaped or virtually decided in the committee rooms, it is not infrequent to see less than a dozen senators on the floor at one time. Also it is a common sight to see a senator deliver a speech, the substance of which may to-morrow be telegraphed to the remotest corners of the land, and not have a single brother senator pay attention to his studied words. Any man who remains long at Washington learns, if he has not before, to take a deep interest in having his state well represented in congress. Oregon is yet in her teens, and cannot expect to send as representatives the peers of those from older states. The average of late has been high, however, but if she expects to ever see her congressmen leaders in national legislation she must abolish the practice of periodically changing them. Hardly a stronger contrast could be drawn than between the upper and lower branches of congress. As far as the room is concerned, however, the hall of representatives resembles the senate chamber in everything save being larger and having different interior decorations. The clerks and stenographers have similar positions. To the right of the speaker are democratic members, to the left all of the republican members and a few of their political opponents, as the democratic majority in the house is considerable. But, oh, the noise when this body is in session! Here is the chief difference between the senate and the house. Let a stranger enter the latter for the first time, and he is surprised almost to amazement by the stifling air, the babbling tongues, the walking to and fro of the members, and the running hither and thither of the pages. Stenographers, in order to correctly report proceedings, must seat themselves immediately in front of or beside the persons speaking, so babel-like at times is the confusion. I have never seen a senator while in the senate chamber either smoke or sit with his feet elevated on his desk. Not so much can be said of the representatives. However, if the soothing influence of tobacco tends to destroy the effect of noise a protest can hardly be entered, but it does look shameful to see cigar fumes circle upward, curl over the railing and envelope refined and cultured ladies. During the latter part of last session the screens that stood immediately behind the outer row of seats were removed. This had the happy effect to drive many of the smokers into the cloak-rooms. May the good work go on.

I am told that a large number of congressmen spend more than twice their salary of $5000 per year. Senator Mahone's expenses while living at the Portland were upward of $1000 per month. Representative Hiscock of New York expends considerable more than that sum at the Arlington hotel. Other congressmen far surpass these two in princely living. Probably simple wealth has less influence in Washington than in any other American city, but the tendency is otherwise. Washington society is expensive, but is in many respects [illegible]. The wealthy congressman with [illegible] [illegible] enters the list at once. He [illegible] is dined, receives, is received. [illegible] widens, his name [illegible] noticed in the "personals" of the
